

PM targets Pawar, asks what has he done for Maha farmers

Shirdi: Prime Minister Narendra Modi on Thursday said some people from Maharashtra only did politics in the name of farmers who had to earlier depend on middlemen to get money from sale of their produce, comments aimed at Nationalist Congress Party (NCP) founder Sharad Pawar, who handled the agriculture portfolio during the UPA government.

Modi asserted the true meaning of social justice is freedom from poverty and when the nation's poor gets ample opportunities to grow in life.

He was speaking at an event in the temple town of Shirdi in Maharashtra after inaugurating several development projects and rolling out a financial assistance scheme for the farmers.

The PM maintained the BJP-led government is working to empower farmers with true intentions.

"Those doing politics of vote in the name of farmers have made you yearn for every drop of water. Some people in Maharashtra only did politics in the name of farmers. A senior leader of Maharashtra served as the country's agriculture minister. I personally respect him, but what has he done for farmers?" Modi said, without naming Pawar.

He added: "When he was the agriculture minister, for months, farmers had to depend on middlemen for their money. Our government gave MSP (minimum support price) money directly into the bank accounts of farmers," he added.

The PM said there has been a multi-fold increase in procurement of crops under the MSP mechanism after his government assumed office in 2014.

"In seven years, food grains worth Rs 13.5 lakh crore were procured under MSP, while this figure was a mere Rs 3.5 lakh crore during the tenure of a senior leader in the earlier government," Modi said, referring to the Congress-led ruling coalition.

Before 2014, purchase of pulses and oilseeds was only to the tune of Rs 500 crore-600 crore, but his government has given more than Rs 1.15 lakh crore to farmers for these products, the PM stated.

Swiss woman murder: Cops say accused tried to lure other women

New Delhi: The 33-year-old Delhi man arrested for allegedly killing a Swiss woman here had promised precious gemstones and offered astrology tricks to other foreign women too to befriend them, police sources said on Thursday.

Gurpreet Singh, a resident of Delhi's Janakpuri, told interrogators he was in touch with multiple foreign women apart from Nina Berger, whose body was found near an MCD-run school on October 20 with limbs tied with a chain. Singh's father has a business of gemstones and astrology in west Delhi. He is currently believed to be in Paris.

The police suspect Gurpreet Singh learned astrology from his father and used it to lure foreign women. He used the same trick to befriend Berger and lure her to come to India, they suspect.

She came to India on October 11 and stayed in two different hotels in west Delhi. "In the first, she stayed till October 16. Then she shifted to another hotel, where we believe, she stayed before being killed by Gurpreet on October 18. The decomposed body of Berger was recovered from near a school in Tilak Nagar on October 20," a police officer said.

"There are chats recovered from his mobile phone where he has talked with several women about gemstones and astrology. It is suspected he would lure them for friendship by offering them precious stones or using astrology tricks," the officer said.

The police said they have recovered Berger's iPhone too, but have not been able to unlock it.
